

CLL Language Centres created by UCL (the Catholic University of Louvain-la-Neuve) 30 years ago, organises language training for companies, public and international institutions.

Teaching Swedish at the European Institutions in Brussels

CLL-Language Centers (www.cll.be) is looking for (M/F):

Freelance Trainers

In: SWEDISH to complete its team of trainers responsible for teaching their maternal language to personnel for international Institutions, Organs and Agencies of the European Union based in Brussels from 2017 to 2020.

Your profile

- You have a university degree in languages and you have had a minimum 2,400 hours experience over at least 3 years since 2005 in teaching your native language to an international adult audience;
- You don't have a university degree in languages but you have a minimum 4,000 hours experience over the least 5 years since 2005 in teaching your native language to an international adult audience;
- You have a C1 level in French and/or English;
- You are in possession of a laptop and you include the new technologies in the classroom;
- You are well-organised, enthusiastic and have good communication skills.

Our job offer

- A motivating, professional project in international institutions;
- A challenging opportunity to teach an international and multicultural audience;
- Full or part-time posts available;
- The possibility to be part of a team with an ambitious professional project;
- The opportunity to develop your skills through on-going training schemes offered by CLL.

Interested?

Then, send us your application on eujobs@cll.be

Make sure that the following elements are attached to your letter of application:

- your CV in Europass format;
- a copy of your university degree in the domain of languages;
- a double sided copy of your identity card;
- the contact details of previous employers who may be contacted for references.